

Book Release

KINGS-SVG Publishers is pleased to announce that there is a new book on the market that you may wish to add to your Caribbean collection. It is edited by Dr. Kenneth John, Dr. Baldwin King and Cheryl L. A. King. KINGS-SVG Publishers published the book "Home Sweet Home: Musings on Hairoun" in December 2007.

This volume is the third of a trilogy on the re-publication of essays, poems and short stories that appeared in the "Flambeau" magazine between 1965 and 1968 in St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

The new volume focuses on the poems and short stories from Flambeau. The authors are mostly Vincentian-born but there are a couple of invited contributors from Caribbean countries. The editors believe that these poems and short stories are still so compelling that re-publication is very appropriate. For example, Tim Daisy's poem "Home Sweet Home" which provides the title for this volume, tells of the yearning for our blessed land, Hairoun, to renew itself. Fitz Dowers' short story "The See-er Man" would still make you reel with laughter. There are also contributions by world famous Vincentian poet/musician, Ellsworth "Shake" Keane and poet/lawyer Danny Williams.

The retail cost of the book "Home Sweet Home: Musings on Hairoun" (paperback, 142 pages, ISBN: 0-9778981-2-1) is US$19.95 plus US$3.00 for shipping in the US, US$4.50 for shipping to Canada and US $8.00 for shipping to the Caribbean and the United Kingdom, by airmail.
