

Book Release

KINGS-SVG Publishers has announced the republication of "Pioneers in Nation-building in a Caribbean Mini-State" by Sir Rupert John with a new Foreword (a biography of Sir Rupert) by Karl John. The new edition is edited by Baldwin King, Cheryl L. A. King and Karl John. The United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) published the original book in 1979.

In the preface to the original edition, Sir Rupert stated that the book was "an attempt to consider in one small volume the lives of twenty-two Vincentians and the contributions they made during the earlier years of the twentieth century to the political, economic, social or cultural development of their native land." The individuals profiled were George McIntosh, Herbert A. Davis, Ebenezer Duncan, Alfred C. DeBique, Benjamin N. Bacchus, James R. Cato, Thomas W. Clarke, Christopher W. Prescod, Darnley E. Williams, Robert M. Anderson, Joseph B. Bonadie, James E. Sprott, Owen D. Brisbane, Walter M. Grant, Joseph M. Gray, Alexander M. Fraser, Donald C. McIntosh, Arnold M. Punnett, Simon S. Garrett, James A. Providence, Henry Crichton and Robert T. Samuel.

Available from:

KINGS-SVG Publishers, P. O. Box 702, Madison, NJ 07940. U.S.A. website: <http://www.kingsinn-svg.com> (Click on Bookstore)
email: kingba@aol.com

Format:

paperback, 257 pages

ISBN: 0-9778981-3-X

Price:

US $29.95

Plus shipping and handling (approximately US $5 in the US, US $6.50 to Canada and US $10.00 to the Caribbean and the United Kingdom - by airmail)

Note: If you would like to have your book signed by one or more of the editors, just send the relevant information with your order.